Capula's Achilles scores up on 2011

Capula has recorded excellent results in its annual Category B2 Assessment by Achilles, outscoring last year's figures in the process.

"It's important to us as a company that we maintain the highest standards throughout our business, particularly in delivery and support, so our clients can have confidence in the quality of our work" said Capula Chief Executive Roger Turner, "Achieving this accreditation from Achilles illustrates Capula's commitment to high standards in safety, health, environmental and quality practices and procedures."

Achilles is one of the world's largest and most trusted providers of supplier information that assists and supports the procurement process, working to identify, qualify, evaluate and monitor suppliers on behalf of major organisations worldwide.
